

Registered by Australia Post
Publication No. VAW4651

$ 4.00

Spring, 1985
Vol. 10 No. 3

MELBOURNE FAMILY CARE
ORGANIZATION
LIBRARY
P.O. BOX 3, GLEN WAVERLEY, 3150.
TEL.: (03) 560 0122
RECEIVED: 26/2/86

IN THIS ISSUE:

THE CASE OF CHILD WELFARE
COMMENTS ON THE CARNEY REPORT
INTERNATIONAL YOUTH YEAR, 1985 – 2 ARTICLES

In this Issue ·

GUEST EDITORIAL

Lloyd Owen

SOME DILEMMAS IN HUMAN SERVICE ADMINISTRATION: THE CASE OF CHILD WELFARE

1

Len Tierney

The author explores potential changes for quality child welfare service when Administrative practices assume no difference between business and welfare agencies.

COMMENTS ON THE VICTORIAN CHILD WELFARE PRACTICE AND LEGISLATION REVIEW REPORT

MANDATORY AND CENTRAL REGISTERS IN CHILD ABUSE — TWO ISSUES FROM THE CARNEY REPORT THAT SHOULD NOT BE CLOSED OFF FROM FURTHER DEBATE.

6

Peter Boss

The author queries the basis of the recommendations of the Carney Report with respect to child abuse reporting.

THE THREE R'S IN CHILD WELFARE — RIGHT'S, RESPONSIBILITIES AND RHETORIC

10

Frank Ainsworth

The author discusses the findings of the Carney Report and considers these in the light of international trends in Child Welfare.

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH YEAR 1985

SOME OBSERVATIONS ON THE THEMES OF INTERNATIONAL YOUTH YEAR 1985 — PART 2

13

Lloyd Owen

In part 2, the author utilizes a Sociological perspective to develop the concept of participation for youth.

CHILDREN'S RIGHTS

19

J. Neville Turner

The President of The Childrens Bureau discusses child welfare issues and the need for children to have a voice in their future.

BOOK REVIEWS

21

The Children's Bureau of Australia has moved to new premises.

The new address is:

3 Chesterville Road,
Cheltenham,
Victoria, 3192

Telephone: (03) 584 6444