

CARE
LIBRARY

BOX 3, GLEN WAVERLEY, 3150
TEL.: (03) 560 0122 6/10/86

IN THIS ISSUE:

- IMPENDING LEGAL PROBLEMS FOR SOCIAL WORKERS
- DANISH TRENDS IN CHILD WELFARE
- DECLARING WAR ON FAMILY POVERTY
- RESIDENTIAL CARE & TREATMENT PROGRAMMES
- INTERNATIONAL YOUTH YEAR, 1985

SUMMER, 1985/86

Vol. 10, No. 4

$5.00

Registered by Australia Post
Publication No.: VAW 4651

In this Issue

GUEST EDITORIAL

Lloyd Owen

2

SOME IMPENDING LEGAL PROBLEMS FOR SOCIAL WORKERS

Frank Bates

The author discusses court proceedings, social security law and mental health as change is anticipated in these areas. He also calls for understanding the legal relationship between social workers and lawyers.

4

CHILD WELFARE LEGISLATION IN DENMARK: TRENDS IN CHILD WELFARE OVER THE PAST DECADE

Kay L. Thomas

Current Danish Welfare Legislation was developed and implemented after elaborate administrative planning to ensure its effectiveness. The author discusses Danish Welfare Law which includes parent involvement.

12

DECLARING WAR ON FAMILY POVERTY

Peter Hollingworth

The address given by Bishop Peter Hollingworth to The Children's Bureau, November 1985.

17

TOWARDS A RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT PROGRAMME FOR EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED CHILDREN

Peter Mertin and Richard M. Baxter

The authors explore current knowledge with respect to residential care and treatment programmes. They propose a residential treatment programme which draws on this knowledge.

19

OBSERVATIONS ON THE THEMES OF INTERNATIONAL YOUTH YEAR 1985 – PART 3

Lloyd Owen

In the final paper in this series, the author applied the concept of peace in social ecological framework. He concludes that young people hold the key for a future based on co-operation, justice and social responsibility.

22