

VOL. 11. Nos. 2 & 3.

CHILD WELFARE AND THE DISABLED
— IS THE BATTLE FOR JUSTICE
REALLY BEING FOUGHT?

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT, ITS CONTEXTS, AND CHILD WELFARE

CHILD PROTECTION OR FAMILY SUPPORT —
DIRECTIONS IN FAMILY
WELFARE FOR THE 80's

GROUP LEARNING
TOWARDS FAMILY
DEVELOPMENT

STRATEGIES FOR CHILD
ACCIDENT
PREVENTION

"THE CHILDREN'S BUREAU —
THE NEXT
THOUSAND YEARS"

BOOK REVIEWS

In this Issue

EDITORIAL	3
Margarita Frederico
CHILD WELFARE AND THE DISABLED – IS THE BATTLE FOR JUSTICE REALLY BEING FOUGHT?	5
Barbara Szwarc
In this article the author reports on research findings from a follow-up study of “Particular Care” (1979). The author focuses on the plight of children with disabilities and their families in their search for appropriate support.
SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT, ITS CONTEXTS, AND CHILD WELFARE	8
Henry Maas
The author focuses on bridging theoretical and practical issues in child welfare with respect to recent developmental and ecological enquiry and implementation of this knowledge in programmes of child welfare.
STRATEGIES FOR CHILD ACCIDENT PREVENTION	10
Carol Major
Issues relating to child safety are explored and programmes for prevention of accidents to children are identified.
GROUP LEARNING TOWARDS FAMILY DEVELOPMENT	13
Beth Carolan
In this article the author describes an activity group conducted at a family welfare agency in Victoria, explores the processes operating and the characteristics affecting the outcome.
CHILD PROTECTION OR FAMILY SUPPORT – DIRECTIONS IN FAMILY WELFARE FOR THE 80’s	16
Phillip Swain
The author challenges those working with children and families to be more active in utilising knowledge and practice wisdom to improve and further develop standards of care and intervention.
“THE CHILDREN’S BUREAU – THE NEXT THOUSAND YEARS”	20
Peter Boss
Executive Director, Children’s Bureau of Australia, Professor Emeritus, Monash University.
BOOK REVIEW	22