

VOL. 12 No. 1
$5.00

1987

LOVE IS NOT ENOUGH:
BREAKDOWN IN INTERCOUNTRY
ADOPTION

ROSEMOUNT — AN ALTERNATIVE
DAY PROGRAMME

A CAMPAIGN TO REDUCE
EX-NUPTIAL BIRTHS?

ENURESIS — A CASE STUDY

CREDIBLE SOURCES OF
INFORMATION ABOUT
ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

BOOK REVIEWS

Registered by Australia Post
Publication No.: VAW 4651

In this Issue:

EDITORIAL	3
Margarita Frederico
LOVE IS NOT ENOUGH: BREAKDOWN IN INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION	4
Juliet Harper
In this paper the author discusses factors identified in unsuccessful adoptions and reviews the current literature. She explores how children and adults cope in adoption breakdown and identify that in adoption the child love alone is not enough.
ROSEMOUNT – AN ALTERNATIVE DAY PROGRAMME	8
Margaret Cody, Erika Cornwell, Tash Dakos, Peter Harkin and Noeline White.
The authors describe a programme for troubled adolescents which is currently operating in Sydney. The programme focuses on the individual, peer group and family and seeks to integrate these in its approach.
A CAMPAIGN TO REDUCE EX-NUPTIAL BIRTHS?	12
J. Neville Turner
This article draws attention to the legal position of children born outside marriage and the legal discrimination they face.
ENURESIS – A CASE STUDY	15
Joy Rainey
The author takes a case study approach to identify issues and techniques in working with a child suffering from enuresis, using a behaviorist framework.
CREDIBLE SOURCES OF INFORMATION ABOUT ALCOHOL AND DRUGS	17
Jeffrey Wilks
This study reports on research undertaken with a group of 700 first year university students to explore where and from whom young people seek and obtain information about drugs and alcohol. The author discusses the implications of the findings for drug and alcohol education.
BOOK REVIEWS	20