

JEFF GUMOUR

- GUEST EDITORIAL 1
John Edwards
- THE RESPONSE TO DISASTER OF INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES WITHIN THEIR COMMUNITY 2
Ruth Wraith and Rob Gordon
The authors discuss three stages in the process of reaction to a natural disaster situation and identify the predominant experience as one of confusion.
- COMMUNITY RECOVERY FOLLOWING THE ASH WEDNESDAY BUSHFIRES 11
John Hill, Helen Hill, Sue Gray
The principles, planning and processes of disaster recovery management are explored by the authors. The authors identify 5 factors which are crucial to the effectiveness of recovery management.
- SOME CONSIDERATIONS IN PLANNING FOR AND MANAGING COMMUNITY RECOVERY FOLLOWING DISASTER 13
Kerry Gartland
In this article the author analyses some effects of disaster and what needs to be done to assist effective recovery.
- PERSONAL AND FAMILY RESPONSES TO DISASTER: THE LONG TERM PERSPECTIVE 15
Rob Gordon and Ruth Wraith
The authors share observations of the way families cope with the multiple and conflicting demands of re-establishing lifestyles after the experience of a natural disaster.
- "KILLING THE FIRE-DRAGON". RECOVERY FROM BUSHFIRES IN A SEMI-RURAL ENVIRONMENT 18
Helen Hill
A Community Development Officer shares her experience of working in a post-disaster setting.
- PERSONAL SERVICES ASSISTANCE AFTER THE SYDNEY FLOODS OF AUGUST 1986 22
Allison Rowlands
This report describes the implementation of the Personal Services aspect of the New South Wales Disaster Welfare Plan.
- THE MYTHS OF RESPONSE TO DISASTER BY PEOPLE AND COMMUNITIES 26
Ruth Wraith and Rob Gordon
The authors identify common myths of responses to disaster
- BOOK REVIEW WHEN DISASTER STRIKES 25
Professor B. Raphael

MAJOR NATURAL DISASTERS IN AUSTRALIA 1986-1987

The contribution of the New South Wales Disaster Welfare Co-Ordinating Committee in providing access to Simon Kneebone's Cartoons is acknowledged with appreciation.
